

January 16, 2026: On the Natural Order

Dear Donald Trump and the USA Military Traitors that Have Invaded my Home:

Since you are watching my work right now and using an endless series of vehicles to 'comment' about you superior 'order' over my life,

Please use your profound engine-based vocabulary to describe to me, in detail, how exactly your kind is the 'superior order' while you are attempting to drag me down every moment of every day as I excel so far above your potential?

Please. Take all of the time that you need.

As I have clearly stated on numerous occasions: Your weaknesses are dragging all of us down to a level that is beneath our capabilities - especially mine.

Please leave my presence so that I can continue to grow naturally and normally without being pulled downward by your tiny-minded and over-inflated egos.

Thank you.
